I have been representing Ms. Amy Sherlock since 2020. The essence of her civil case revolves around her rights to her deceased husband, Michael "Biker" Sherlock's adult-use cannabis licenses which he acquired just months before his death. There should be no doubt that when licensing authorities are met with a legal authority that commands them to undertake a mandatory action by virtue of a "shall" directive, they do so. To assure myself that I was not somehow misinterpreting the law, I sent a letter to the Department of Cannabis ("DCC") seeking clarification on that language. Anyone reading this exchange can appreciate, there was no substantive response to my inquiry and I was ignored. As this goes to the application process, I find it critical that the actual owners are disclosed and those who don't qualify are not given licenses as it creates a threat to public health and welfare, if criminals are allowed to own these licenses.
