I'm very sorry for the loss you and your boys suffered with Michael's death.

Are you convinced it was a suicide?

The cremation having not been done without your approval raises some issues for me.

That's just not done.

I'm in federal court right now, suing the City of San Diego and some of Razuki's business partners and if there is any chance his death was not a suicide and the act was covered up

we should talk

I don't like these fucking people and their slimy associations within our government. I know what they're capable of from having them commit armed robbery at my property. Tied up an employee and the getaway driver was a Chaldean operative.

I gave the SDPD the getaway drivers identity. They had him in cuffs. No arrests were ever made. No follow ups. 1-1/5 years later I go with my attorney to SDPD HQ and have a meeting with the detective on my case and his sergeant.

They act surprised I have an image of the getaway driver

they promised us the case was still active

3 months later they dropped the case into inactive status

Nothing they do will or can surprise me.

Michael from everything I've heard and read was under pressure from his dealings with them. The CTE diagnosis was never made or confirmed. His death while a tragedy should not go unaccounted for.

If you prefer to not relive any of this I understand and you'll never hear from me again. But if you check out the flowchart I'm using at trial you'll see Michael has a cell in it that describes what I see to be as very questionable in light of the hit Razuki put out on Milan

If I'm wrong about this please accept my apologies for bringing it up and my deepest condolences for your loss.

Hello, yes, definitely suicide. There's a lot more to his story that isn't public. Also, CTE can only be confirmed by autopsy. While that wasn't done, I'm 100% sure it was suicide. Thanks for reaching out

You can now message and call each other and see info like Active Status and when you've read messages.

1/15/20, 8:43 PM

Thank you for your response. Would you be interested in seeing some of the evidence we have that might suggest other forces were at work?

About my husband??

yup

How do you have evidence about his death?

Amy what I have is evidence of a conspiracy that involves some very powerful people that got sloppy these are the same people Michael was involved with and they have a history of intimidation, threats and violence up to and including murder

That is evidence I have and it's going in front of a federal judge as we speak

That he was murdered??

it is very possible

You're in SD?

yup

Can I meet you tomorrow? Where are you?

yes

do you have the signal app on your phone?

No

add it

it's the most secure way to communicate

then call me @ 619.954.4447 when you are free to talk

Ok, I'll call you in the morning after I drop my boys off cool

bless you and your family

we're going to get this right

Thank you ❤️ god bless you too

sleep well and give those boys a hug for me

He was a remarkable young man

Hi Darryl. I'm obviously upset over what you have told me and what you believe. I can tell you this, there's absolutely no one that was close to Biker that thinks he didn't commit suicide. There's a lot more to his personal life and his health, besides CTE, that you don't know about and that I'd like to keep to myself. He did have an autopsy. I did release him for cremation. That part of your story is completely untrue. I spoke to detectives and there was absolutely no doubt in their minds or mine regarding physical evidence that it was suicide. I'd like to keep those details to myself, but I assure you, there was absolutely no evidence that it wasn't suicide. I know the marijuana industry is full of criminals and sharky people. Unless there's shares in a company that my boys and I deserve to receive, then there is no point in getting involved. I don't know much about the CUP situation. My brother in law was one of his best friends and was helping him with the CUP. If there is anything else needed to be discussed, he will talk to you. I'd like to point out to you that your page about him, if found by his family would be incredibly upsetting and will cause so much pain. I hope you can understand that. So, you've completely ruined me emotionally and I cried all night. If there's anything else. I can put you in contact with my brother in law.

Good morning Amy

I'm sorry to have upset you. That was never my intent. I took the post down this morning so it won't be there containing any factual inaccuracies

What I do want you to know is that both you and your brother in law may want to meet with the attorneys so that you can make your own decision as to what they've discovered regarding the people that Michael was involved with and what may have been a contributing factor in the depression that led to his suicide if indeed that is what took place.

There is an audio recording you're going to want to hear where they talk about Michael

I'm not the one to talk to about where the case will go and what your rights are based on the work Michael did for these people. The attorney's will tell you that.

If you have time this afternoon we could meet at the Brigantine in La Mesa if that works for you

Who is on the recording?

The attorneys will tell you. It's going in under seal.

In other words the judge is going to hear it in it's entirety but it is not public information disclosed during trial

Ok. I want to hear it. I live in North county and my boys are home in the afternoon

I think you need to

I understand how painful this is and believe me when I tell you I want nothing more out of this then to give you the tools to make an informed decision

I'm going to have Andrew, the attorney call you what number should I use?

[Redacted]

1/16/20, 9:31 AM

I'll be seeing him later and I'll give him your number

Ok

1/16/20, 1:03 PM

I just spoke with Andrew

I'm meeting him around 2

Can we call you somewhere around 2:30?

1/16/20, 1:47 PM

Yes 2:30 is fine

1/30/20, 12:43 PM

I gave you an invite to the Banned Members group

If I'm sharing too much let me know and I'll scale back but there are people in this group that I expect to opine and that will be good for you to hear their stories as well

I see this as a family asset and to those who would argue otherwise I'm prepared for that argument but I want to hear how they choose to defend the indefensible

1/30/20, 2:41 PM

It's, cool. I'm glad you are sharing. It's just been a busy day. I've had a lot to do with the Concussion Legacy Foundation today. I'll have some time to read up later Sounds good. If you have any friends that would know how things went down with Michael and they do FB invite them to share in this group. We may pick up things that help the case.

Memories fade after this many years sometimes there are nuggets in the most innocuous comments. The less wiggle room with these people the better.

1/30/20, 3:57 PM

Ok. I will. Most friends/ business acquaintances bailed on the boys and I after Biker died.

1/30/20, 4:19 PM

wow

they were never really friends then

Lets see if we can't help make at least some of this right

You and the boys deserve it i see Michael Bailey chimed in

He knew Biker pretty well from what he was telling me.

People suck. His family have been jerks too. Except one uncle who has been awesome and close with the boys. He pays for Titus's Karting. They hate me for telling the boys that he died by suicide. I know, crazy right?

I'm not surprised as to how people can be when you actually need them to be supportive

We won't drag you into anything that gets under your skin

I'll ban them if necessary

image being banned from banned members

it's not easy but there have a few that asked for it and they got it

I won't tolerate it

Yeah, I've learned a lot about people. My friends are still around and I'm making new ones.

I don't know Michael Bailey. Biker could've though.

Might I make a suggestion?

Thank you. I don't expect people to not be nice.

Sure

Even people I've had issues with in the past

I like to give them a chance when they ask to join Banned 🙌

In fact just recently a semi famous cannabis came sucking up to get in and I KNOW she's a head case

she played nice for about a month then she went off on a member because he support Trump

Lol, no crazies

I gave her one warning and she went off on me

What that showed the group though is we really are there to explore the laws and regulations that create a positive life experience for some but not others

Like I said if ANY of these people are not going to treat you or Bikers legacy with respect they are gone

Thank you 😊

Let's see if w can learn something that helps Andrew with constructing your arguments. Even though they are pretty straightforward but

some of these people may become witnesses for you.

If it gets into punitive damages and that is where in my gut where I think it's going to end up

Ok thank you for your insight and guidance

Your very welcome. People who have the most to lose will not see this coming and you're in this for all the right reasons

Hit me up anytime

Thanks Darryl. I'd love for you to meet my boys too.

That would be my pleasure

Do they like pizza?

Lol I was going to suggest pizza. Titus is gluten free so as long as there's something for him. He'll eat salads and stuff lol

Well do you guys have a favorite spot? If not I would suggest The Spot in La Jolla catch the cove, a little walk and then have some dinner sound like fun?

Sure. Sounds fun

I'm not sure how busy I'm going to be on the case over the weekend but if you're open we could do something Saturday afternoon say around 4ish. Does that work for you?

Ugh, Titus is racing this weekend where?

And it's Super bowl on Sunday

Riverside

let's connect during the week then. Are they in school?

Ok. Yes, they are in school. Titus does home school though, so he's around and he can be here when Steel gets home from school

Well I know how busy you must be so you tell me when you all want to meet at the cove and we'll enjoy some scenery and head over to the Spot for dinner on me. I look forward to it.

OK I've got an important question for you

Ok, sounds good

What?

KC or SF?

Lol SF

You?

LOL

I thought you could use that. I know I did for me I KC but I think SF is going to win it

I'm from Chicago so I tend to follow those teams

I have no idea who's even favored. I just have a friend who played on SF well you should have the hookup then!

All you got to do is get to Miami

Nah, he's a college boyfriend and I don't think his wife would like me there

You're probably right. The games better on TV anyway.

What kind of racing is Titus doing? Go Carts?

Karts. They go like 70mph

what!!!?

Is he good?

not taking crazy chances?

I had NO IDEA these even existed!

He just started last year. He's getting good. He's got a lot of Biker's racing talents. I can't stop him from doing what he loves and he's good at. Biker's parents wouldn't let him play basketball because he could get hurt. Look how he turned out. He just hid it all from them. Titus wants to race Formula 1. This is where they all start

It's actually pretty cool

I can see where it would be a total rush! They must stick to the road like little bugs

Yes. It's crazy

2/1/20, 12:00 PM

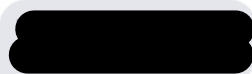

Are you in Riverside today?

I need both boys full legal names

so we can add them to the complaint.

Also when you went through probate were you represented by an attorney?

2/1/20, 2:36 PM

There was no probate. He had no assets

We're in Fontana today racing. Crashed in the first heat. Bent frame. Had to rebuild back up frame with parts. Started last in second heat and finished 7th out of 12. Main is at around 4:30

2/18/20, 6:59 AM

Good morning!

I have an update on the Ramona project. Give me a call when you get a chance.

Also going to contract with a forensic signature specialist this morning. I'll update once I meet with him.

Ok, I'll call you after I get boys off to school. Around 8

3/15/20, 9:40 PM

Greetings!

The case looks really good. It is a promise though. There is so much to assemble. I think your elements were done with just the right touch.

I hoipe you and the boys are doing well.

I look forward to another pizza when you have a chance.
